SINGAPORE WILL BE FILM DISTRIBUTING CENTRE FOR R.K.O. STUDIOS

SINGAPORE will be the film distribution centre for the Far East in future, as far as R.K.O. studios is concerned. This is the result of the transfer of the distribution offices from Shanghai to Singapore.

Mr. Leon Britton, who has recently arrived in Singapore. told the "Malaya Tribune" that Singapore as a centre was ideally situated:

Outlining, R.K.O.'s extensive programme for 1940, Mr. Britton menrate importance. "

Chief among these were "Hunchback of Notre Dame." with Charles Laughton in the principal part. This is one of the finest character parts the famous British actor has had since he has taken to screen

Even Better

Walter Disney's" "Pinocchio" is. according to its author, even better than "Snow White." This picture will be ready for release in America this Christmas.

"Ivanhoe" is another picture which forms part of this extensive 1940 programme.

Excellent Film A picture which should appeal to Singapore cinema audience is "Nurse Edith Cavell," featuring Anna Neagle.

This picture, Mr. Britton told the "Malaya Tribune," is an excellent piece of work and when Mr. Britton was in Hollywood recently he was told by Miss Neagle that this is the finest part she has had to play.

"ZENOBIA" OPEN AT THE KING'S TO - DAY

A new era in entertainment ushered in to-day with "Zenobia," Hal Roach's latest offering, at the King's Theatre. The era in this case is 1870, and the setting Mississippi in the carefree days after the Civil War.

Combining costume with comedy and farce with furbelows. Roach has dividual brands of high humour. Hardy is cast as a smalltown doctor, Langdon as owner of a medicine show." The eternal triangle is in this case completed by Zenobia, Langdon's two-ton she-elephant, who forms a heavy atunties an uncomfortable knot in her tail. The H. C. Bunner story from which "Zenobia" is adapted was" called "Zenobia's Infidelity," which may give some clue to the plot.

Oh grandmama!

THE right frilled bodice and the flared crinoline skirt have Le come straight out of the old family album, but the figure is her own. Great grandmama could never have achieved this slim athletic line without the high-pressure help of a sturdy lady's maid, but she achieves it by watching her diet and her cirinks. Her cocktail for example is always a Gimlet because she knows that the girl who insists on Rose's Lime Juice today avoids a headache and a Rubens contour tomorrow.

He was paid £1 weekly. Headmasters stated that the education of these boys was gravely retarded. They arrived at school tired and listless. Some were paid only 5s. weekly for pre-breakfast work. It was decided to urge the Gov-

Chinese Priest Who Knows War Lords

NOW TRAVELLING THE WORLD

In Sydney "is a Chinese priest Father Joseph Liu, who knows many a former war lord of his native land...

A scholarly man, with fluent command of Latin, Italian, French Spanish and English as well as Chinese, "Liu has spent the greater part of his life working as a missionary among the peasants of Honan Province.

Provided with credentials from the Vatican and from the Apostolic Delegate to China, he is now travelling the world.

Father Liu told a "Sunday Sun' reporter interesting facts about the men who have been a power in Chinese affairs in the past 20

Chiang Kai-shek, he said, is so concerned about his health that he once spent a week in a Shanghal hospital for a medical examination.

Specialists in all branches of medicine examined him and each pronounced him fit and healthy.

BANDITS IN BUSINESS

Father Liu was once held for for four months by bandits.

"They asked for £9000 at first," he said. "but they came down bit by bit."

Finally, he was released on giving an undertaking to supply the bandits with medicine. Father Liu lived up to his part of the bargain. Father Liu will speak to the children of all important Catholic schools in New South Wales and will then visit other States and New Zealand before returning to China.

"Here is a case of man who is being made a bankrupt for $360. I am opposed to this kind of law, only regard it as a misuse of the whole bankruptcy procedure," said Mr., Justice Pedlow commenting on a petition for a receiving order against Chua Sim-chi in the Singapore High Court recently.

"War" Topic Of Conversation In Hongkong

The topic of conversation in Hongkong yesterday among people in every walk of life was "War." Optimists predominated. but there was also a full complement of pessimists.

Many more people were seen in the streets than usual, and ferries crossing the harbour carried full loads of passengers throughout the morning and afternoon.

Five hundred and more passengers from the Lloyd Triestino liner Giulio Cesare were ashore Many of these people were Jewish refugees from Europe, a good number of whom spent the day in seeing Hongkong.

UNUSUAL SIGHT:

The Star" Ferry wharf on the Kowloon shore presented an unusual sight in the afternoon, hundreds of cigarette butts, discardbus tickets, and pieces of wrapping paper littering the board flooring.

The busier thoroughfares in the city and in Kowloon were filled with people who had gathered in groups, talking and discussing the latest news. Old residents were adamant in their optimism, newcomers to the Colony less so.

The Chinese population was early in the streets, and many rumours gained ground as the morning advanced. Some stated they had witnessed the arrival of new British troops, others asserted that they had seen more than enough new Indian troops, to assure the safety of Hongkong Vendors in the market places traded their wares with a bonus of re-assuring words.

There was some talk of a coming shortage of foodstuffs and this became intensified with the first appearance in stores of European housewives, who proceeded to order an unusually large assortment of foodstuffs for immediate delivery.

The situation has eased considerably and we are informed that the Japanese forces on the northern side of the frontier are now more friendlily disposed towards the British than before There is no truth in the report that they are withdrawing, from the border.

We are informed that there are no undue transfers of troops from Singapore to Hongkong.

HIGH PRESSURE ON TELEPHONES

The majority of telephones in the Colony were rendered, at some time of the day or other, yesterday, useless and it was impossible to secure the necessary connexions though everything appeared normal on the receiver's side.

Upon complaints being made, an official of the Hongkong Telephone Co. stated that the phone services were not out of order but there was an unusually large number of calls being made on account of the present crisis.

In fact, he added, the number

SERIOUS FRONTIER CLASH TAKES PLACE: GERMAN, POLISH GUARDS EXCHANGE FIRE

BRITISH DECLARATIONS MAKE IMPRESSION IN BERLIN

BERLIN, AUGUST 25 (REUTER) — THE FIRST SERIOUS FRONTIER CLASH OCCURRED LAST NIGHT, according to the German news agency, in the district of Makoshua, near Hindenburg, in Upper Silesia.

Polish guards are alleged to have crossed into German territory, and German frontier officials opened fire upon the Poles refusing to return.

The Poles replied, and one man on each side was seriously wounded. The message adds that the "incident has evoked much indignation among the population."

It is suggested in German news agency reports from Warsaw that Polish military action against Danzig is imminent. It was stated in German political circles that the declarations of the British statesmen last night have made a negative impression. The last British newspaper correspondent has left Berlin for Copenhagen.

A message from Warsaw states that three more classes of reservists, aged 26 to 28 have been hurriedly called up.

Specialists are being called up to the age of 60. Altogether 600,000 men are believed to be affected. Members of the German Embassy staff are packing their bags.

An atmosphere of distinct excitement prevailed in Warsaw tonight, but there was no trace of panic in the streets. Full military cars, lorries and taxis are taking reservists to the

In all the cases, soldiers were seen having farewell, drinks with their girl friends, while officers dined with their relatives in restaurants.

TROOP MOVEMENTS TAKING PLACE

Under cover of the huge prohibited area, for aircraft in East Germany, many last-minute troop movements are being perfected. From a very well-informed non-German military source, Reuter learns that the German tactics in the event of an invasion of Poland would be the following:

The main concentrations of troops are in East Prussia, where ten or eleven divisions are assembled, including the famous 1st Army Corps. It is understood that these troops would advance down the eastern bank of the Vistula.

Two other big concentrations are said to be in Pomerania, opposite Gydnia and near Breslau. The former would march straight across to Danzig and the second would come up in a north-easterly trai." direction south of Poland.

There are perhaps 22 or 23 German divisions now round the Polish frontiers, and reserve divisions are being organised and brought up with remarkable frequency and efficiency.-Reuter.

FIRST LAYMAN OF CATHOLIC ACTION: TWO ENGLISH MARTYRS: AN ANCIENT CATHOLIC MANOR: A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY NEAR NAPLES

(Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press")

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, THE COMMEMORATION OF WHOSE DEATH IS ON NEXT TUESDAY, HAS BEEN HONOUR-ED AS THE FIRST LAY APOSTLE OF CHRIST, OR AS THE "FIRST LAYMAN OF CATHOLIC ACTION."

It is correct to claim St. John the Baptist as a lay apostle, for he was neither priest nor monk and was never formally enrolled into the band of Christ's apostles, who were the first Bishops of the Catholic Church.

Many speculate as to what part he would have taken in the apostolate of Christ if he had lived, but there is no room for anything beyond mere speculation, Christ regarded him highly and his commendation put him as "greatest of the sons of men."

Two English Martyrs

Last month simple homage was paid at Tower Hill in London to the memory of two gallant Englishmen who suffered marcyrdon there exactly four hundred" years ago: Blessed Adrian Fortescue Knight of St. John, and Venerable Sir Thomas Dingley, Prior of the Order. Not even the bitterest enemy of the Catholic Church has ever attempted to make a case for the martyrdon of these two men, though they were condemned and beheaded by the King's attainder on the charge of "treason."

In the charge Sir Thomas Dingley"it was stated that he had gone "to several foreign princes, persuading them to make war | 1939 with the King," but there was net even the faintest evidence in proof of the charge, and no trial of any kind was held before his execution.

In the case of Blessed Adrian Fortescue not only was there no trial but there does not even appear to have been a specific indictment. He was accused of "sedition and refusing allegiance. and so went to his death untried as did many during the reign of Henry VIII.

The Dictionary of National Biography suggests that he was put to death because of his relationship to Anne Boleyn. SOVIET RAISES TONNAGE DUES AGAINST JAPAN

SHANGHAI: Aug: 25 (Int7)-Soviet authorities at Vladivostok have raised tonnage dues again: Japanese thips to such an extent as to make practically impossible any calls by Japanese vessels to Boviet ports in the North, according to a report received here. Soviet pressure on the 4,500-ton

Kihi Maru of the Tsuruga-Vladivostok service is also said to have been increased, although she was previously permitted remain at Vladivostok overnight. The Soviets are said to have ordered her in the future to leave on the same day of arrival. They also have demanded tonnage fees of more than five roubles, which is six times than before. It is said that the Soviets will not only refuse to permit Japanese boats to enter Vladivostok but will capture them if the vessels refuse to pay the tonnage dues according glarming political news from Europe, and doubte as to the true intent of our visitors over the border. Anxiety on this latter score has been somewhat allayed, inducing bargain hunters to appear in the market. It is, however, impossible to forecast the trend of the market, though a favourable turn in politics would probably be followed by a quick upturn in price

The Singapore market opened purely nominal at above rates The market was nervous and it was very difficult indeed to do business even at substantially lower rates.

Very late in the afternoon the market took on a steadier tone.

NEW YORK COTTON

The tone to-day was firm on good buying and covering coupled with increasing foreign interest. The European situation continues to dominate the market and prices will probably go higher in the event of better political news

NEW YORK RUBBER

Prices advanced on Trade and speculative interest together with a good volume of factory buying. The announcement of the Board of Trade..in London to the effect that exports to foreign countries are prohibited except under an expore licence, has been the substaining influence of the firmness in view of the very low reserves of stocks here.

CHICAGO WHEAT

After opening somewhat higher, prices later declined on reports of renewed offering by the Winnipeg Wheat Board and on the feeling that yesterday's advance was somewhat overdone. Fluctuations were narrow due to the general uncertainty.

STOCK EXCHANGE PRICES MARKED DOWN

LONDON, Aug. 25 (Reuter) -On the London Stock Exchange, following the overmight's news regarding the international situation, prices were marked lower, with dealings possible only by direct negotiation.

About noon minimum prices were fixed for gilt-edged securities, giving the whole list steadier appearance.

Commodities were generally quiet, apart from fair activity in wheat and cotton and to a lesser extent in sugar.

MONEY MARKET

On the Foreign Exchanges, business was confined to the adjustment of positions; although dollars were stilk demanded against sales of gold.

Sliver advanced a penny to 19 1/16d on the lack of sellers in the face of moderate demand. Wall Street was easy.

Since there appears to be some misunderstanding laid in emergency supplies of foodstuffs are informed that they should notify the Food Supply Officer of the State or Settlement in which the place of employment is situated of the nature and amount of the emergency stocks so laid in and of where they are stored.

In cases where such emergency stocks have been purchased and paid for but are for convenience held on the premises of the supplier and not on the place of employment, this fact must be clearly stated in making the

In cases where employers of labour have already notified some other authorities than the Supply Cfficer, they should renew the notification to the proper quarter without delay.

"MILD" RUN ON BANKS

"People are talking a lot but the situation so far as the banks are concerned is not at all bad. As a matter of fact," he added, "the situation is very, very normal."

EXTRAORDINARY SCENES Extraordinary scenes were witnessed at the Hongkong Shanghal Bank, where large crowds of people, chiefly Chinese, besieged the savings department to withdraw funds.

The rush was so great that depositors had to be queued up, and extra clerks transferred from other departments to help with the work. There was little unusual activity noticed in other departments. It was observed that in some cases, depositors who had withdrawn-money from the savings department merely put the money in safe deposit either in the same bank or other banks. a --

There were, of course, certain withdrawals necessitated by emergency expenditures in the case of people evacuating or purchasing extra provisions.
